

Cerridwen's Cauldron
Inspiration & Visions for new Paths of Life

A magic trip to Ireland with Ulla Janascheck
01.09. - 09.09.17

... in Donegal

The celtic goddess Cerridwen, the crone is giving her magic energy to those who are looking for regeneration, transformation and new paths in their lives. She is stirring the primeval soup in her three-legged cauldron and flavouring it with the seven herbs of wisdom. She knows all about the power of the sea, the lakes, the rivers – the water. As mirror woman she is donating inspiration and visions to those who are following her traces.

During the workshop we will connect with Cerridwen's special power in our dream state of mind. We will be inspired and awaken an inner vision for new paths into a happier and more content life.

We will be visiting nature's ancient energy places and will be waving a net of subtle energy so we can gain inspiration, happiness and fulfillment. We are following Cerridwen's light on the wild paths along the Irish coast.

We will be enchanted by Donegal's unspoilt landscape, the drum, the endless beaches, the capaciousness of the skies, the seven sisters mountains and the atlantic. We'll tune in and expand beyond the veils of time.

We are visiting the Beltany stone circle and will be listening to the fairy whispers and songs.

We will go where the winds want us to blow, we will be travelling on the fairy's fine hair.

Signposts to Donegal

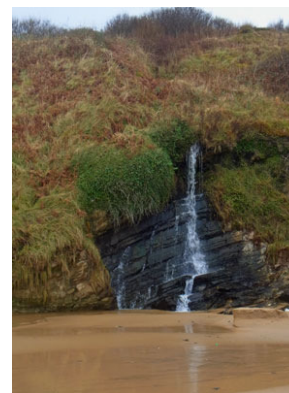

At Dublin airport take the bus Bus to Letterkenny or Creeslough. 3 ½ hours later, after a beautiful journey across the island I will collect you at the bus station.

We will be a small women group from three to seven participants and will be cooking together. The first and the last day of the journey is reserved for arrival and departure only

Luggage

Often September is wonderful in Donegal. However, winds and weather are changing quickly. Bring waterproof shoes, a head band or hat and a raincoat.

For further information please contact me personally.
